

Stephen de Jong
Chairman

- 10 years of experience in the mining industry
- Recently the President and CEO of Integra from 2012 until its sale to Eldorado in July 2017, where he advanced the Lamaque project from exploration to near-term production
- Instrumental in raising over $150M during challenging times in the mining sector

George Salamis
President and CEO

- Over 25 years of experience in mining and resource exploration, and has been involved in over $1.4B of M&A
- Most recently Executive Chairman of Integra which was sold to Eldorado
- Successful career in mining and exploration having discovered, financed, built, managed or sold more than 5 major minerals deposits around the world
- Worked for Placer Dome and Cameco for over 12 years

Andrée St-Germain
Chief Financial Officer

- Experienced mining finance executive with an extensive background in banking, mining finance and financial management
- Formerly in investment banking at Dundee Capital Markets
- Joined Integra as CFO in early 2017 and helped oversee the sale to Eldorado
- Prior to that, CFO of Golden Queen Mining, where she played an instrumental role in securing project finance and overseeing the transition to commercial production

E. Max Baker, Ph.D.
VP Exploration

- Ph.D. Geologist and Member of Aus-IMM based in Reno Nevada
- Over 40 years of exploration experience in Australia, Asia, North and South America and Europe on projects ranging from grassroots, resource definition and development
- Involved in the exploration and discovery of several significant deposits globally
- Previously Chief Geologist for Rennison Goldfields, Newcrest and MIM, as well as VP Exploration for several junior mining companies over the years